

Full-year 2016 infrastructure finance league tables

IJGlobal

06/01/2017

IJGlobal has for the first time published a full-year league table report which captures all types of the infrastructure finance transactions. The report provides the most complete picture available of the energy and infrastructure market.

According to IJGlobal data, the total number of global infrastructure finance transactions fell last year compared to 2015, but the total value of those transactions rose on-year off the back of a number of big tickets deals. 2016 saw the long-term trends of restricted pipeline and abundance of capital continue.
