IJGlobal is delighted today to be announcing the shortlist in the company section for our inaugural ESG Awards to recognise developments in the last financial year – April 2020 through March 2021.

All categories were debated openly by the independent panel of judges and secretly voted on during Judgment Day which was held virtually on 18 August.

Here we are publishing the shortlisted companies, though it should be noted that it does not represent the full line-up of categories as the judges – in some cases – chose not to reveal a shortlist, opting only to identify the successful entrant.

All of the winners will be revealed at the awards night – which is to be staged at a physical event in London on 21 October – when a total of 20 trophies will be presented.

The shortlisted company awards are:

Legal advisory:

- Allen & Overy
- Clifford Chance
- Norton Rose Fulbright

Financial adviser:

- Cranmore Partners
- PwC

Infrastructure bank:

- CIBC
- ING
- Natixis

Environmental award:

- CDPQ
- Hannon Armstrong
- Mytilineos

Technology award:

- PwC
- Quinbrook

Public sector / multilateral award:

- AIB
- Catapult Energy Systems
- UK Export Finance
