Angus Leslie Melville

03/02/2025

We are delighted today to publish the shortlist for the Company section of the IJGlobal Awards 2024 for Europe and Africa, identifying the organisations that the independent panel of judges shortlisted... with the big reveal on the night in London.

The London awards night will be staged on Wednesday 5 March at The Peninsula, Hyde Park Corner. For more information, go to the site for IJGlobal Awards 2024.

As with all IJ awards, we take great pride in their peer-review nature, with Company awards judged by an independent panel of industry experts that has the final say on all winners. To read about the judges, click here...

This story identifies the organisations that are on shortlists – with the winners revealed on the night. However, there are a number of other company awards that will be announced on the night where the judges chose an outright winner (see end).

The transaction awards are chosen by the IJGlobal editorial team and are not shortlisted.

All shortlists are displayed in alphabetical order and 2 individual awards will be presented on 5 March – an Outstanding Individual and a Rising Stars – both chosen by the judging panel.
